Minister of National Defense Lee Jong-Sup

Chairperson of the National Defense Committee, NA Lee Hun-Seung

Good morning. This is the Minister of National Defense, Lee, Jong-Sup.

Firstly, I would like to congratulate the successful opening of DX KOREA 2022.

I would like to extend my warm welcome to delegates from 40 countries and defense industrial experts from home and abroad, including Defense Minister Nad of the Slovak Republic, Defense Production Minister Tareen of Pakistan, Under Secretary of Defense Al Dhaheri of UAE, GAMI Governor Al Ohali of Saudi Arabia.

I also extend my deep gratitude to President Kwon Oh Sung of the Organizing Committee for arranging this meaningful event and to Chairman Lee Hunseung, Members of National Assembly Mr. Shin Won-sik, Mr. Ahn Gyuback, and all the distinguished visitors for joining us today.

Ever since its establishment in 2014, DX KOREA has presented the platform for international exchange and cooperation among governments and defense industries, while exhibiting cutting-edge weapon systems from countries around the world.

With much attention drawn to the renowned weapon systems of the Republic of Korea, including K2 Tanks, K9 Howitzers, and FA-50 Light Combat Aircraft, and given that the exhibition has never been hosted in a larger scale before with delegations from 40 countries and 350 agencies participating today, I believe the significance of this year's exhibition is that much greater.

Distinguished guests from home and abroad! Facing the era of the 4th Industrial Revolution, through which cuttingedge science technologies are rapidly developing, countries around the globe are consolidating many capabilities of defense science technology in order to take the initiative in the future security environment.

The countries are directing their interests and efforts at the government level towards the defense industries, in particular, to strengthen not only the national defense but also the new drive for economic development.

The Republic of Korea, building a military of science and technology suited for the changing security environment by grafting the state-of-the-art science and technology onto all areas of defense, is providing its concerted efforts to transform the defense industries into national strategic industries. The efforts include packaging of support measures, such as joint development of weapon systems, technology transfer, and overseas local production, by types of export and continued development of follow-up support options through creating manuals and backing education and training so that buyers can operate the Korean weapon systems with ease.

DX KOREA this year will allow you to see for yourself not just ground and naval weapon systems, but also the present and future of defense industries through a variety of cutting-edge equipment, taking the environment of future battlefields into account, such as drones, robots, manned and unmanned combat systems.

Ultimately, I hope the our government will actively share our own experiences and the know-hows through the exhibition.

I once again extend my gratitude to President Kwon Oh Sung of the Organizing Committee and all the staffs. Please accept my best wishes for your good health and success. Thank you.

Good morning, ladies and gentlemen. My name is Lee Hun-seung, Chairman of the National Assembly's National Defense Committee of the Republic of Korea.

I sincerely congratulate you on the successful hosting of DX KOREA 2022, which marks its 10th anniversary this year, dating from 2014.

I would also like to express my gratitude to the delegations from all over the world who paid a visit despite the difficult times, to defense enterprises in Korea and abroad whose indefatigable efforts made this event successful despite such adversity, and to the military officials, including Kwon Oh-seong, President of the Korean Army Association, who hosted the event.

The Korean defense industry has entered a new heyday, introducing a variety of cutting-edge science and technology amid the waves of the 4th Industrial Revolution, and has created a new term: K-defense. Furthermore, in line with government policies, defense products crafted with our own hands are contributing greatly to the export industrialization of the defense industry. Considering all of this, it can be said that DX KOREA, which is held as one of Asia's largest defense industry exhibitions, carries a truly significant meaning.

The state-of-the-art weapon systems exhibited this year featured cutting-edge science and technology including AI and drones, which were unfamiliar only 10 years ago, and yet are actually being operated before our eyes today.

Now, our defense industry is achieving dazzling growth in which the diversity and scope of exports are expanding all over the world, all while taking advantage of global trends and utilizing advanced technologies.

As the Chairman of the National Defense Committee of the Republic of Korea, I will support the efforts of the defense industry in Korea, promote various policies necessary to ensure an enhanced and effective military force, and contribute to building a strong defense posture in the Republic of Korea.

Moreover, I hope that DX KOREA 2022 not only promoted Korea's excellent defense technology to the world, but also became a place where high-ranking military officials from all over the world positively evaluated our defense products.

Based on this, our sincere hope is that the exhibition provided an opportunity for the defense industry in Korea to further develop and to find a new direction for the future.

Finally, I would again like to thank President Kwon Oh-sung of the Korean Army Association, for his tremendous efforts towards today's event, along with past Chiefs of Staff of the Korean Army, and officials of the event as well as the defense industry, who are the true owner of the exhibition.

Last but not least, I would like to thank Minister of Defense Lee Jong-sup, for his tremendous support. I would like to also express my gratitude to all those involved in the Republic of Korea Army, Navy, Air Force, and Marine Corps.

My sincere hope is that the delegations who visited Korea from afar to participate in the exhibition and the attendees here always maintain their health and happiness in the future. Thank you.

Chairman of Association of the Republic of Korea Army
Chairman of DX KOREA Organizing Committee

Kwon Oh-Sung

Honorable Member of the National Assembly
Democratic Party of Korea, representing Goyang Electoral District C

Hong Jung-Min

We welcome all distinguished guests to FKorea Defense Expo 2022<sub>J</sub>.

My name is Kwon Oh Sung, the Chairman of the Association of Republic of Korea Army, the host of the event.

First of all, I would like to express my gratitude to the overseas distinguished guests.

Thank you for coming a long way to attend this event.

I would like to express my deepest gratitude to the Ministers of Defense of Romania, Slovakia and Pakistan, as well as the Chiefs of Staff and delegations from 40 foreign countries for accepting the invitation.

Representatives, executives and employees of the defense industry, you enabled today's event.

Thank you for your tireless work and I wish you many more blessings of much larger and extended growth.

First of all, I would like to express my gratitude to the Minister of Defense and the Chief of Staff of the Army for leading this event as well as providing full support.

I would also like to thank the Chief of Naval Operations and Air Force and the Director of the Defense Acquisition Program Administration.

Let me extend my appreciation to the Chairperson of the national defense committee.

The defense industry has struggled to survive due to the threat of North Korea, but now we are at the threshold of globalization in the age of defense industry.

Faced with the clear truth that national security ultimately depends on national defense capabilities, we have been looking for alternatives that will contribute to regional security and world peace while equipping ourselves with the capabilities to calmly and effectively respond to the threat from North Korea.

It may not be complete and full, we have been increasing our capabilities to deter war. Now, we must all work together to make our visions bigger and dreams come true.

We will grow the pie by creating a 'space' where all stakeholders from raising military demands to becoming united.

Now, we will become a defense industry that grows even more through the interest, love and encouragement of the government, companies, institutions, all participants, as well as the public.

I hope that DX KORE, which is now celebrating its 5th year, will take a step forward and become a place for everyone to become one, covering both the weapon system and the defense support system.

Thank you everyone who attended and prepared the event, and God bless you all.

Thank you.

Greetings. I am Hong Jungmin, Member of the National Assembly of the Democratic Party of Korea.

First of all, I would like to sincerely welcome the overseas VIPs and guests who attended the welcome reception ahead of the official opening ceremony of "Defense Expo Korea 2022." In addition, I would like to congratulate and thank the members of the Defense Expo Korea Orginizing Committee and other related parties for their hard work in preparing for this event. The recent security situation in the international community, including the Korean Peninsula, is extremely complex and grave. The international security is unstable due to North Korea's nuclear and missile threats and the Ukraine Crisis. Furthermore, we are facing risks such as intensifying competition for technological supremacy centered on major countries and restructuring of supply chains. Despite these difficult conditions, the Korean defense industry continues to grow and has become an important basis for strengthening national defense capabilities.

While the Korean defense industry is raising its status under the name of "K-defense" around the world, with the large-scale defense exports to Poland, it has recently been attracting attention as a new growth engine and a cutting-edge strategic industry in charge of national security that will lead the Korean economy.

Since its inception in the 1970s, the Korean defense industry has been growing while overcoming various challenges and crisis. With success in developing the KAI FA-50 Light Combat Aircraft, Korea proudly ranked as the eighth country in the world to develop supersonic aircraft. And the South Korean self-propelled howitzer K9 Thunder occupied 48% of the global market, rising to the ranks of outstanding self-propelled howitzer market, and the next-generation Aegis destroyer Jeongjo The Great enabled Korea to acquire superior shipbuilding technology and maritime security capabilities.

In today's glory of K-defense, the "Defense Expo Korea," which celebrated its 5th anniversary this year since its first event in 2012, has played a pivotal role with achievement of defense exports. The "Defense Expo Korea," which has contributed to the development of the Korean government and the Korean defense industry while providing a business platform for exports, will be recognized as an international exhibition worthy of its name through this event.

In addition, I hope that all of you who are here today will pay a lot of attention and effort to develop the national defense industry centered on cutting-edge technology, supporting K-defense, which is the core of Korea's strong security and will contribute to the economy through defense exports.

As a member of the Trade, Industry and Energy Committee, I believe that the defense industry is of great significance not only in terms of security, but also in terms of industrial economy that leads to technology advancement, exports and revitalization of the local economy. To understand the defense industry, I studied K-Defense industry advanced management program recently. In the future, as a member of the Trade, I will pay more attention to the national defense industry fostering policies and systems at the pan-governmental level, and strive to seek systematic reorganization of related laws and devise legislative measures to realize economies of scope beyond economies of scale in the industrial aspect.

Once again, congratulations on the opening of "Defense Expo Korea 2022," and I wish you a successful end of the event. We ask for your unchanging interest and support in the development of the Korean defense industry while praying for the endless development of K-defense. Thank you.
